

~PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, the City of Battle Ground, Washington is a prominent, growing city in Clark County; and

WHEREAS, Clark County has more than 70,000 residents who are 65 and older; and

WHEREAS, Clark County's seniors are valued members of our community, and our collective responsibility is to ensure they live safely with a sense of security; and

WHEREAS, Clark County has more than 70,000 residents who are 65 and older; and

WHEREAS, abuse, neglect, and exploitation affects one in 10 older people nationwide across all sectors of society, damaging public health and threatening our parents, grandparents and friends; and

WHEREAS, Adult Protective Services refers more than 400 cases annually, involving physical abuse and financial exploitation of Clark County seniors, to the Clark County Elder Justice Center; and

WHEREAS, alleviating and eliminating abuse will improve the quality of life for seniors, vulnerable adults and their families, and enable seniors to continue to live independently and contribute to the vibrancy of Clark County; and

WHEREAS, we must build and sustain an environment where seniors are treated with respect and dignity, enabling them to continue as leaders, mentors, volunteers and active members of this community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mike Dalesandro, Mayor do hereby proclaim June 15, 2018 as in the City of Battle Ground, Washington and encourage all Clark County citizens to learn the signs and symptoms of elder abuse, report suspected elder abuse, support efforts to safeguard the elderly, and celebrate Clark County's seniors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Battle Ground to be affixed this 7th day of May 2018.

Mayor Mike Dalesandro
