Parks & Recreation Community Programs

Fees for determination on the cost of delivering some additional programs and services. In most cases the primary costs is staffing or external group instruction costs and any new supply, equipment or material costs. The parks and recreation department strives to keep our fees as low as possible, to find efficiencies and being creative wherever possible. We will see outside donations, sponsorship and grant opportunities when available to assist in reducing costs for programs. Examples of potential programs, craft night, teen night, preschool activities, sustainability workshops etc.

Bricks and Banner Program

Banners can be purchased for $150 and will hung in the City from May 1 through the 3rd week in June. Banners are the property of the purchaser and will need to be claimed by July 1 or the banner will be disposed of. This program will be promoted beginning June 2021 with initial year banners displayed in 2022. Banner orders can be placed anytime until March 1 of each year. Due to vendor minimum order requirements, if the City does not receive five banner orders by March 1, the order will not be made and a full refund will be issued to the banner purchaser.

Battle Ground Parks & Recreation
2021 Fee Schedule

Once the banner is purchased, the purchaser can pay a re-hanging fee each subsequent year to cover the cost of hanging the banner and taking it down. This fee will be determined at a later date but shall not exceed $50.
